Prevention Ethics Virtual Training scheduled for Sept. 28 and Sept. 29

The Office of the Prosecuting Attorney, Life's Choices Kaua'i Program will be holding a two-day virtual training on prevention ethics in substance misuse on Sept. 28 and Sept. 29, from 8:30 a.m. to noon.

To enroll in this free training, the attendee must have access to Zoom and register at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/ethics-in-prevention-for-kauai-county-providers-tickets-118323220939>.

The training will cover the six principles in the Prevention Code of Ethics, key terminology and the decision-making process to use when faced with an ethical dilemma involving substance misuse.

This training is specifically for providers living in Kaua'i County. Youth-serving organizations, school counselors and other educational personnel, youth after-school and other prevention-related programs, and others working in substance misuse prevention are encouraged to participate in this training.

This course is approved by the Department of Health, Alcohol and Drug Abuse Division, for 6.0 hours to meet the Ethics in Prevention course requirement for the Certified Prevention Specialist credential.

Those with questions or needing an auxiliary aid/service or other accommodation due to a disability should email Cora Balocan at cbalocan@kauai.gov or Theresa Koki at
